1995 SEC NOTEBOOK

As the Southeastern Conference begins its 63rd season of competition, this tradition-rich league looks to build upon the extraordinary impact the 12 member institutions have had on the game of college football.

The SEC's heritage has been substantiated by national championship teams, Heisman Trophy winners, All-America performers and legendary coaches. Holding true to form, the SEC established the standard by which others are judged again in 1994.

The final 1994 Associated Press poll featured five SEC teams (Alabama-5th, Florida-7th, Auburn-9th, Tennessee-22nd and Mississippi State-24th), marking the highest total of any conference in the nation. The SEC led the nation in non-conference winning percentage for the 11th time in the last 15 years, with a mark of 27-8-1 (76 percent).

The SEC sent five member schools bowling following the 1994 season (Florida - Sugar; Alabama - Citrus; Tennessee - Gator; Mississippi State - Peach; South Carolina - Carquest). This quintet extended the league's all-time bowl appearances to 267. Trailing the SEC in this category is the Pac-10 at second with 151 and the Big 10 at third 147.

The SEC's defining moment of the 1994 campaign took place in Atlanta's Georgia Dome as Florida edged Alabama, 24-23, to capture the conference crown on December 3. A record crowd of 74,751 watched in person, eclipsing the previous Georgia Dome high of 72,500 set at the 1994 Super Bowl.

More impressively, the SEC title game played to a television audience of more than 30 million people. The ABC telecast earned a 10.5 rating and a 26 share, becoming the highest-rated college football game since the 1991 season.

The interminable popularity of SEC Football is evidenced by the nearly 73.5 million who have watched the first three SEC Football Championships on ABC-TV and the record 4.9 million people who attended an SEC game during the 1994 season. Every year since the records have been maintained (1981), the SEC has led the nation in total attendance.

SEC's Gaston To Receive Hall of Fame Award

Bobby Gaston, the Southeastern Conference's Coordinator of Football Officials, has been named the 1995 recipient of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Official Award. Gaston will be presented the award on December 12, 1995 in New York City.

A former football and basketball letterman at Georgia Tech, Gaston joined the SEC in 1957 as a football official. He worked on the field for 25 years and was ranked the number one head linesman for 16 years in the conference. Gaston worked 19 bowl games and numerous all-star games during his career (including four Cotton Bowls, three Sugar Bowls, four Gator Bowls and four Orange Bowls). After his retirement in 1981, he became an SEC Observer until his appointment to football supervisor in the fall of 1988. The originator of many conference officiating training programs, the 1995 season will mark his 39th year of service in some capacity to the Southeastern Conference.

SEC IN PRESEASON POLLS

Five of the SEC's 12 schools have been mentioned in at least one 1995 preseason poll. No other conference in the country can boast four teams in the top 10, as the SEC placed four in the top 10 of the Football Writers' preseason poll.

SEC Championship Game December 2

The SEC's Eastern and Western Division winners will meet in Atlanta's Georgia Dome to battle for the league championship and the right to represent the conference in the newly-formed Bowl Alliance. The fourth-annual title game is set for December 2 and will again be nationally televised by ABC Sports at 7:30 p.m. ET.

The game is a result of conference expansion, which saw Arkansas and South Carolina become the first members added in SEC history. Under NCAA regulations, a conference with 12 members may play a 12th football game to determine its champion, provided the regular season is played in divisions.

The participants of the game are determined each year during the eight-game regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the best overall SEC winning percentage in each division.

The SEC Championship Game is also the only Division IA football contest in the nation which may be decided by a tie-breaking system. In the event of a tie at the end of regulation, the SEC will implement NCAA Rule 3-1-3 (Extra Periods) which was altered by the NCAA Football Rules Committee to allow teams to have a tie breaker with as few exceptions as possible to rules in regular periods.

An extra period shall consist of two series with both teams putting the ball in play at their opponent's 25-yard line. Each team retains the ball until it scores or fails to make a first down. The team scoring the greater number of points during regulation and the extra period(s) shall be declared the winner.

Divisional Representative Tie-Breaker

In the event of a tie for the division championship, the following procedures will be used to break all ties to determine the SEC Football Championship Game representative:

All Conference versus Conference Games (both division and non-division) will be counted in the Conference Standings.

A. TWO TEAM TIE

- Head-to-head competition between the two tied teams.
- Records of the tied teams within the division.
- Head-to-head competition versus the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) Conference record and proceeding through the division. Multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last.
- Overall record versus non-division teams
- Combined record versus all common non-divisional teams.
- Record versus common nondivisional team with the best overall Conference (divisional and non-divisional) record and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division.
- Vote of the Athletic Directors whose institution is not involved in the tie.

B. THREE (OR MORE) TEAM TIE

(Once the tie has been reduced to two teams, go to the two team tie breaker format)

- Combined head-to-head record among the tied teams.
- Record of the tied teams within the division.
- Head-to-head competition versus the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) Conference record and proceeding through the division. Multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last.
- Overall record versus non-division teams.
- Combined record versus all common non-divisional teams.
- Record versus common nondivisional team with the best overall Conference (divisional and non-divisional) record and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division.
- 7. Vote of the Athletic Directors whose institution is not involved in the tie.

SEC Bowl Agreements

The Southeastern Conference has agreements to send four of its member institutions to postseason bowl games following the 1995 season. The winner of the SEC Championship Game will automatically participate in the newly formed Bowl Alliance comprised of the Orange, Sugar and Fiesta Bowls. The CompUSA Florida Citrus (2nd), the Outback (3rd) and the Peach (4th) Bowls will make their selections, following the Bowl Alliance picks.

SEC Football On JP Sports

The Southeastern Conference signed an agreement with Jefferson Pilot Sports (JP Sports) on November 7, 1994 to televise SEC football through the 2000 season.

The Charlotte, N.C., company holds the rights to televise 12 or 13 games annually throughout the nine-state SEC area on a syndicated basis for the next six years.

During its three seasons of airing SEC football, JP Sports' audience has averaged over 2.5 million viewers per game through its syndicated network of 55 television stations in the SEC area. Another 800,000 fans per year have watched via regional cable outlets in other parts of the country.

JP Sports, which also has extended its agreements to broadcast SEC basketball through 2000-01, will air a conference football game in the early Saturday afternoon time period (12:30 p.m. Eastern) as allowed by the College Football Association. Games will be selected 12 days in advance beginning with contests scheduled for September 30.

Tim Brando and Dave Rowe begin their first season together in the broadcast booth, while Bob Kesling will again handle halftime, post-game and sideline coverage. Brando, who will describe the play-by-play, has been associated with SEC football and basketball since 1986 through his work with ESPN and JP Sports. He is currently the host of "Inside the NBA" on TNT as well as the play-by-play announcer on SportSouth's Atlanta Braves and Hawks telecasts.

Rowe, a former All-Pro defensive lineman for the Oakland Raiders, is on board for his first full season of SEC football analysis. He has been in broadcasting for most of the 15 years since his NFL retirement in 1980, 10 of those years as an analyst for the NFL on NBC. He has also been associated with various college bowl telecasts over the past several sea-

Kesling is sports director at WBIR-TV in Knoxville, Tenn., and has worked numerous SEC events through the years including both the men's and women's basketball tournaments.

FERENCE

History of the Southeastern Conference

pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition, the Southeastern Conference stands ready to advance intercollegiate athletics into the 21st century.

Since its formation in 1933, the SEC achieved both stature and stability by designating governing/voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. They have determined the policies of the conference and through the years this involvement has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the SEC.

Throughout its 63-year history, the SEC has provided leadership on the vital issues facing intercollegiate competition. In 1993, the member institutions adopted The Principles of Gender Equity. Committed to increasing the quantity and quality of women's athletic opportunities, each school will provide at least two more women's intercollegiate programs than the number of men's.

Faced with the task of conference realignment after competing with 10 members since 1966, the SEC welcomed the University of Arkansas on Aug. 1, 1990, and the University of South Carolina on Sept. 25, 1990. Joining charter members Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt, on July 1, 1991, Arkansas and South Carolina became the first schools added in conference history.

Fully incorporated into conference competition by 1992, Arkansas and South Carolina participated in SEC championships for all sports except football during the 1991-92 academic year. The SEC was again at the forefront, introducing football, basketball and baseball divisional play and the nation's first ever Division I football championship game.

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another almost 100 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives, called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt, in Atlanta Dec. 22, 1894.

Student teams from the schools began meeting in various sports with little pattern to their contests. The American adaptation of the English game rugby, called "football" was drifting down from the East and Midwest. Southerners were quickly attracted to this sport formalized in 1869.

The first football game in the Southeast was played April 9, 1880, on the ground now called Old Stoll Field at the University of Kentucky. Kentucky A&M (now UK) organized a team and in November 1881, played Transylvania College in a three-game series. By 1895 11 current SEC members were playing football.

Basketball moved quickly to the South as Vanderbilt was playing at the Nashville YMCA in 1893, just two years after Dr. James Naismith originated the game at Springfield (Mass.) College.

Track was organized on a conference level at the 1895 SIAA meeting presided over by President Dudley who served until his death in 1914. The first championship meet was held at Vanderbilt May 15, 1896. By 1900 eight of the 13 charter SEC members were participating.

The seven-member SIAA expanded to 19 institutions in 1895 (Alabama, Auburn, Central, Clemson, Cumberland, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Mercer, Mississippi State, Nashville, North Carolina, Sewanee, Southwestern Presbyterian, Tennessee, Texas, Tulane and Vanderbilt) and by 1920 there were 30 members.

The larger schools reorganized as the Southern Conference at a meeting in Gainesville Dec. 12-13, 1920. Professor S.V. Sanford of Georgia called the meeting and served as the first president. Charter members of the Southern Conference included: Alabama, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi State, North Carolina, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Washington & Lee.

Despite an original limit of 16, the membership grew to 23 by 1928. In 1922 Florida, Louisiana State, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tulane, Vanderbilt and Virginia Military joined, while Sewanee and Duke became members in 1923 and 1928 respectively. At one time or another the SIAA and the SC included most of the Southern colleges from Virginia to Texas.

The 13 members west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganized as the Southeastern Conference at the annual SC meeting of Dec. 8-9, 1932, in Knoxville. The 10 coast members remained in the Southern Conference. Dr. Frank L. McVey of Kentucky was elected president of the new conference whose charter members were: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt. (Sewanee withdrew Dec. 13, 1940, Georgia Tech on June 1, 1964 and Tulane on June 1, 1966), McVey held an informal meeting of the school presidents in Birmingham Feb. 16, 1933, then the first full meeting in Atlanta Feb. 27.

The office of the commissioner was formed in 1940 in Jackson due to the great amount of detail work developing, especially in recruiting and eligibility. Former Mississippi Governor Martin S. Conner took office as commissioner Aug. 21, 1940. Conner later became ill and the secretary of the conference, Dean N.W. Dougherty of Tennessee, served as acting commissioner during the fall of 1946.

The office moved to Birmingham with the appointing of Bernie H. Moore as the second full-time commissioner on Feb. 21, 1948. Moore, a former LSU coach, guided the SEC to national respect in his 18-year tenure.

A.M. (Tonto) Coleman succeeded Moore upon his retirement April 1, 1966. The Alabama native, who was reared in Texas and experienced in athletic coaching and administration, served six and a half years.

Dr. H. Boyd McWhorter, then Dean of Arts and Sciences at Georgia and secretary of the league since 1967, accepted the position upon the retirement of Coleman Aug. 1, 1972. Under his leadership the SEC experienced unparalleled growth. In McWhorter's first year the SEC distributed $1.57 million and 14 years later (1986) the league distributed $15 million in revenue to the member institutions.

Dr. Harvey W. Schiller, an Air Force colonel and faculty chair at the U.S. Air Force Academy, followed McWhorter upon retirement, taking office Sept. 15, 1986. Under his guidance the SEC established itself as a leader in the areas of athletic scholarship and marketing.

Roy F. Kramer succeeded Schiller on Jan. 10, 1990. Kramer, who has served on numerous NCAA committees, joined the league office after spending 12 years as athletic director at Vanderbilt.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track. The league's inaugural championship event was a basketball tournament in Atlanta Feb. 24-28, 1933. Records show the first men's team title for cross-country was awarded in 1935, while golf and swimming were added in 1937. The league later began hosting championships in tennis (1938) and indoor track (1957).

In the 1979-80 academic year SEC championships for women were recognized in basketball, tennis and volleyball. The following year golf, gymnastics, swimming and track and field were added. The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984.

The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and 10 women's sports: Men - baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming, tennis and track (cross country, indoor and outdoor). Women -basketball, golf, gymnastics, soccer, swimming, tennis, track (cross country, indoor and outdoor) and volleyball.

SEC announces that the membership has voted to play the 1994 and 1995 Football Championship Games in Atlanta's Georgia Dome. On June 1, 1995, the conference extended the agreement with the Georgia Dome through 1998.

August 4, 1994

A group of Division I-A conferences, including the SEC, select the Fiesta, Sugar and Orange Bowls as hosts for the Bowl Alliance games beginning at the con-clusion of the 1995 regular season. For the first time since the 1976 season, the SEC champion will not contractually serve as the host team in the Sugar Bowl, but will participate in the Alliance through 2001.

October 22, 1994

The CompUSA Florida Citrus Bowl renews its agreement with the SEC to have the first selection after the Bowl Alliance picks have been made. The SEC participant will face the Big Ten runnerup through 2001.

October 27, 1994

Outback Bowl officials announce a six-year agreement featuring an SEC team (3rd selection) against the Big Ten's third-place team in the New Year's Day game through 2001.

November 4, 1994

The SEC extends its affiliation with the Peach Bowl through 1997 with an option to extend through 2001. The Atlanta-based bowl will have the fourth selection of SEC teams available for post-season competition.

SEC announces it will distribute a league-record $40.3 million back to the 12 member institutions under the 1994-95 revenue sharing plans.

The Southeastern Conference "The Standard For Excellence"

roviding a balance between athletics and academics, the Southeastern Conference has long been a national leader both on the field and the in the classroom. Since the conference's formation in 1933, the SEC's member institutions have built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country.

The 1994-95 academic year will be

The 1994-95 academic year will be recorded as another highly successful chapter in the 62-year history of the conference. SEC squads captured four national team titles and six national runner-up finishes during 1994-95. In all, the SEC has won 32 national team championships over the past five years for an average of over six per season.

The 1994-95 national champions for the SEC included: Arkansas men's indoor track and men's outdoor track; LSU women's indoor track and women's outdoor track. The NCAA runners-up were: Alabama gymnastics, Arkansas men's basketball, Florida women's tennis. Ole Miss men's tennis, Tennessee men's indoor track and women's basketball.

Overall, the SEC placed at least one team in the the top three nationally in 12 of 19 conference sports and in the top ten in 16 of 19 sports. The 19-sport breakdown included four national champions, six NCAA runners-up as well as eight third place and three fifth place finishes. The SEC boasted five NCAA semifinal squads a No. 5 final poll ranking in football and one NCAA College World Series berth.

The SEC established a new high for NCAA Championship participation during the 1994-95 season with 104 teams advancing to their respective national tournament. SEC student-athletes earned 27 individual national titles, while All-America honors were bestowed on 373 individuals as the league provided at least one All-America in 18 of 19 sports.

Additionally, the SEC Academic Honor Roll record was shattered for the seventh straight year as 704 student-athletes were honored for their work in the classroom.

On the national all-sports level, the SEC tied the Pac 10 for the most teams (6) in the Sears\NACDA Director's Cuprankings. Florida headlined all SEC squads with a fifth-place showing.

Tennessee finished 11th while Georgia and Alabama finished 14th and 15th respectively. Arkansas notched 18th and LSU rounded out the SEC's showing at 19th.

Points are awarded for a team's finish in 10 men's core sports (baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, swimming, tennis, track and field, wrestling and one wildcart sport) and 10 women's core sports (basketball, cross country, field hockey, golf, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, track and field, volleyball and one wildcard sport.)

A brief sport-by-sport summary of the 1994-95 year follows:

Baseball: - The SEC led the nation in NCAA tournament berths for the fifth consecutive year landing six tournament bids (Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, LSU, Ole Miss, Tennessee). SEC Champion Tennessee extended another conference streak with a trip to the College World Series. An SEC squad has now appeared in the College World Series in ten of the last eleven years. In addition to their second straight overall title, the Volunteers garnered the Eastern Division title with Auburn clinching the Western Division crown.

Men's Basketball - For the first time in league history, the SEC placed a team in the Final Four in three consecutive years with defending national champion Arkansas clinching national runner-up honors. It was the 17th-straight year the league sent at least half of its teams to postseason play. Five league teams (Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Kentucky, Mississippi State) made the NCAA draw with two others (Auburn, Georgia) posting NIT appearances. Kentucky parlayed an Eastern Division and SEC Tournament title while Arkansas and Mississippi State shared the top spot in the Western Division. The SEC boasted two of the top teams in the Today CNN/Coaches' poll (Arkansas second; Kentucky - fifth) with two other league squads (Mississippi State - 18th, Alabama - 20th) earning top 25 distinc-

Women's Basketball - Tennessee and Georgia returned the SEC to the Final Four for the 13th time in 14 years, marking only the fourth time in NCAA history and the third time in SEC history that two

- The SEC placed at least one team in the Top 3 nationally in 12 of 19 sports and in the Top ten of 16 of 19 sports.
- Last year, an SEC-record 104 teams participated in NCAA Championships. SEC student-athletes earned 27 individual national titles, while All-America honors were bestowed on 373 individuals as the league provided at least one All-America in 18 of 19 sports.

conference members have participated in the same national semifinals. The SEC led the nation in NCAA bids for the 13th time in the last 14 seasons with a record seven squads in the tournament field. Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Ole Miss, Tennessee and Vanderbilt made the 64team field with all but one of the squads winning at least one game in the tournament. The SEC also kept alive its streak of at least four teams ranked in the final Associated Press poll for the 14th straight season with SEC Champion Tennessee (third). Vanderbilt (sixth), Georgia (12th), Alabama (13th), Arkansas (15th), Florida (17th) and Ole Miss (19th) appearing in the rankings.

Men's Cross Country - SEC Champion Arkansas gave the SEC a top 10 national finish for the seventh year in a row with Tennessee (12th) and Alabama (20th) rounding out the league contingent. It was the Razorbacks' fourth straight conference title since joining the league in 1991.

Women's Cross Country - A nation-leading four conference squads placed in the top 20 team finishers at the NCAA Cross Country Championships. SEC Champion Arkansas landed its fourth straight top five national finish to pace the conference representatives. The Razorback sweep of the men's and women's SEC crowns was the sixth time in the last seven years that the same school has claimed both trophies. Alabama (14th), Auburn (17th) and Florida (20th) each gained national attention with high national finishes.

Football - A Georgia Dome sellout crowd of 74, 751 fans and the largest television audience of the college football season watched Florida mount a fourth quarter rally to defeat Alabama in the SEC Championship Game to clinch its second straight SEC Title and a berth in the Sugar Bowl. Four other conference squads gained bowl berths with Alabama (Citrus Bowl), Mississippi State (Peach), South Carolina (Carquest) and Tennessee (Gator) carning postseason appearances. The SEC led the nation in football attendance for the 14th straight season as 4,891,615 fans visited league stadiums in 1994. For the 11th time in the last 15 years, the SEC led the nation in non-conference winning percentage with league squads winning over 75 percent of their non-conference contests.

Men's Golf - Three SEC squads took to the links at the NCAA Golf Championships marking the seventh straight season at least three teams have made the national championship round. Florida topped the conference entrants at 13th while Tennessee and Auburn garnered 16th and 17th respectively. Arkansas clinched its first league championship and gained a regional berth.

Women's Golf - SEC teams left their mark on the front nine and the back nine at the NCAA Women's Golf Championships with South Carolina fielding ninth place honors and Georgia taking an 18th place finish making it the 11th straight season that at least two conference squads have made the tournament field. Florida stroked its way to the SEC title winning by 29 strokes.

Gymnastics - The SEC once again vaulted itself into the national spotlight placing four teams in the NCAA top 10. League performers captured four of five individual titles giving the conference 14 of the last 15 individual event championships. SEC Champion Alabama gained national runner-up honors in the team competition while Georgia (5th), Florida (7th) and LSU (9th) finished among the nation's top programs. Kentucky once again gained recognition in the individual competition as its at-large qualifier earned four of five individual crowns.

Men's Indoor Track - Arkansas continued its national championship streak as the SEC champion Razorbacks clinched their 12th straight NCAA indoor title. Tennessee nabbed runner-up honors while Georgia finished sixth. LSU (T-14th), Kentucky (T-17th), Alabama (19th), Florida (T-43rd) and Auburn (T-50th) gave the SEC a nation -leading eight scoring squads in the national meet.

Women's Indoor Track - The SEC's stronghold in the women's competition remained firm as LSU edged the field for the fifth consecutive year. Arkansas (T-4th) and Georgia (7th) gave the conference a pair of top ten finishes while Florida (11th), Alabama (15th), Tennessee (18th) and Auburn (T-25th) gave the SEC over a quarter of the top 25 team finishers at the NCAA meet.

Men's Outdoor Track - Conference champion Arkansas fended off a late challenge to clinch its eighth straight NCAA outdoor crown. LSU and Tennessee secured top five finishes with the Tigers finishing third and the Volunteers pulling fifth on their home track. The SEC garnered top 20 finishes from Georgia (10th), Kentucky (16th), Florida (14th) and Alabama (19th). Individually, conference participants earned five of 21 individual national crowns.

Women's Outdoor Track - LSU outdistanced a talented field to clinch its ninth consecutive NCAA outdoor title and its 12th overall track title in the last three seasons. SEC Champion Georgia made a strong third place showing with Tennessee nabbing another top 10 finish at sixth place. Auburn (21st), Arkansas (33rd), Florida (47th) and Kentucky (60th) rounded out the deep conference field. In addition, three individual national titles went to SEC athletes.

Soccer - In only the third year of conference competition, Vanderbilt made SEC history with the league's first NCAA tournament berth. The SEC champion Commodores, ranked 19th nationally, were one of four league teams to finish the season above the .500 mark.

Men's Swimming & Diving - Five conference teams posted top 20 NCAA finishes for the fourth consecutive season and the sixth time since 1986. Led by SEC champion Auburn who notched a third place finish, the league notched eight spots on the NCAA scoreboard with Tennessee (6th), LSU (12th), Florida (15th), Georgia (16th), Arkansas (24th), Alabama (26th) and South Carolina (30th). SEC athletes tallied two individual NCAA titles and 65 All-America honors.

Women's Swimming & Diving - The SEC once again made a big splash at the NCAA Swimming & Diving Championships with nine conference squads breaking into the scoring column. It marked the tenth straight time at least six SEC schools have scored in the national meet. Georgia turned in a sixth place showing while Florida followed its tenth consecutive SEC title with an eighth place finish at the NCAA Championships. Tennessee (12th), Auburn (13th), Alabama (15th), LSU (17th) and Kentucky picked up top 20 finishes

Men's Tennis - For the sixth time in the past seven seasons, the SEC led all conferences in NCAA bids with 10 schools (Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, South Carolina, Tennessee) participating in the NCAA postseason tournament. Ole Miss stroked their way to NCAA runner-up honors, while SEC Champion Georgia was a national semifinalist. Florida and LSU made the championship draw while Kentucky. Tennessee, Arkansas, Auburn and South Carolina each advanced to regional play. The SEC dominated the final ITA top 25 rankings boasting seven teams, seven singles players and seven doubles teams.

Ole Miss head coach Manuel Diaz was named Wilson\ITA Coach of the Year while leading a Rebel doubles team to the NCAA crown.

Women's Tennis - SEC Champion Florida turned in an undefeated conference ledger on the way to a NCAA runner-up finish. Georgia made it to the national semifinals while LSU, South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt each earned championship berths. Nine of the 12 league squads appeared in the final ITA top 25 rankings with Florida (2nd), Georgia (3rd), South Carolina (11th), Tennessee (12th), Vanderbilt (16th), LSU (18th), Alabama (20th), Ole Miss (21st) and Auburn (23rd), Individually, five singles entrants and four doubles teams ranked in the ITA top 25. SEC athletes also picked up ITA Rookie of the Year and Player to Watch honors.

Volleyball - Florida garnered its third straight tournament title and its fourth straight regular season title en route to a NCAA Regional semifinal appearance. Georgia posted a second round showing to give the SEC multiple berths in the NCAA tournament for the fifth straight season. In addition, Arkansas and South Carolina participated in the NIVC post-season tournament. Florida and Georgia represented the SEC in the final AVCA poll at 14th and 18th respectively.

The SEC Office (above) spans half a block and was provided by the city of Birmingham. It is located at 2201 Civic Center Boulevard within the newly-developed City Center. The foyer entrance (left) is highlighted by a two-story glass rotunda. It features school banners, championship pedestals and links the two galleries which display the member institutions' exhibits.

SEC Headquarters

The Southeastern Conference office moved to its current headquarters in downtown Birmingham October 15, 1991.

The two-story structure was designed specifically to house the SEC's 25-person staff as well as accommodate the needs of the various committees, coaches and administrative groups which meet at the conference office on a regular basis. In addition, the office building includes displays honoring the current champion in each of the 19 conference sports, exhibits featuring the 12 member institutions and the league's history as well as a research library.

The multi-faceted operation of the SEC Office includes certifying the eligibility of all student-athletes, managing championship events, enhancing academic opportunities for student-athletes, monitoring NCAA and SEC compliance, coordinating officiating assignments, negotiating television contracts, distributing conference revenue, cultivating corporate sponsorships and coordinating media and public relations efforts.

The SEC headquarters, which contains more than 30,000-square feet of working space, was provided by the city of Birmingham. It is located two blocks from Interstate 59-20, adjacent to the Birmingham-Jefferson Civic Center, and is a five-minute drive from the airport.

The office of the commissioner, formed in 1940, was originally located in Jackson, Miss. Upon the appointment of Bernie Moore as commissioner in 1946, the SEC headquarters relocated to Birmingham's Redmont Hotel. In October 1967 the conference office moved to the Central Bank Building in downtown Birmingham, before moving to the Riverchase Galleria Tower in May 1988.

ROY KRAMER SEC Commissioner

prominent leader in intercollegiate athletics, Roy Foster Kramer became the sixth commissioner of the Southeastern Conference January 10, 1990.

During his tenure at the helm of the SEC, the conference has experienced unparalleled growth. In 1994-95 alone, the SEC earned four national titles and six national runner-up finishes, while distributing a record $40.3 million to the member institutions. Kramer also negotiated multi-sport national television packages with CBS and ESPN, featuring football and men's and women's basketball through the 2000-2001 academic year.

Within seven months of his appointment, the conference announced plans for expansion, adding Arkansas and South Carolina officially on July 1, 1991. Following expansion, Kramer guided the league in formulating divisional play and the first Division IA conference football championship game. He has since helped secure multi-year bowl agreements for conference teams which qualify for post-season competition. In addition, he has been instrumental in the creation of new scheduling formats for all sports as well as the implementation of coaches educational seminars.

On the national level, Kramer has been a key component in the formulation of the Bowl Alliance. He served two terms on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee which selects the 64-team field for the NCAA Tournament and administrates all tournament games. Kramer was chairman of the committee for the 1992 NCAA Tournament. He served a four-year term (1989-93) on the NCAA Basketball Television Negotiating Committee that was responsible for securing the seven-year S1 billion contract with CBS Sports.

A member of the NACDA Executive Committee, Kramer also serves on the NCAA Committee on Infractions. During his career he has distinguished himself as a member of several other NCAA committees including, the Special Advisory Committee to Review Distribution of Revenue, the Committee for National Drug Testing Policy, the Investment Committee and the Select Committee to Study Intercollegiate Athletics, which proposed the President's Commission. He also served as chairman of the NCAA Men's Committee on Committees in 1987 and 1988.

During his 12 years (1978-90) as athletic director at Vanderbilt University, Kramer was a leader in establishing conference policies. He is a past chairman of the league's athletic directors and was influential in bringing the SEC Basketball Tournament to Nashville in 1984, the first sellout in tournament history. In addition Kramer helped land the 1991 SEC Tournament for Vanderbilt, as well as the first and second rounds of the 1982 and 1989 NCAA Tournaments.

Other highlights of his Vanderbilt tenure include a $6 million addition and renovation of McGugin Center, which houses the complete Commodore athletic program and the construction of Vanderbilt Stadium in 1981. He was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame in February, 1989.

After a nine-year stint as a high school head football coach in Michigan, which included three state championships, Kramer joined the coaching staff at Central Michigan University. Just two years later he became the head coach at CMU and compiled an 83-32-2 (.718) record in 11 seasons. In 1974 he was tabbed NCAA National Coach of the Year after guiding the Chippewas to a 12-1 record and the Division II National Championship.

Kramer obtained his bachelor's degree from Maryville (Tenn.) College in 1953 following a standout career as a football lineman and wrestler. He received the school's Distinguished Alumnus Award in 1982. He added a master's at the University of Michigan in 1954 and then spent three years in the U.S. Army, rising from a non-commissioned officer to a first lieutenant in the European NATO Command.

The Maryville, Tenn., native was born October 30, 1929. He is married to the former Sara Jo Emert. They have three children (Steve, Sara Gray Cassell and Jane House) and six grandchildren.

The Southeastern Conference distributed approximately $40.3 million to the 12 league institutions in the revenue sharing plans for the 1994-95 fiscal year.

The $40.3 million is the highest total ever distributed in SEC history and represents a 17 percent increase from the $34.36 million distributed to the schools in 1993-94,

The revenue sharing plans include money generated by football television, bowls, the SEC Football Championship, basketball television, the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament and the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament.

Broken down by categories and rounded off, the $40.3 million was derived from $16 million for football television, $5 million from bowls, $4.3 million from the SEC Football Championship, $5.1 million from basketball television, $3.5 million from the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament and $6.4 million from the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament.

The amount distributed to each school which participated in all revenue sharing ranged from a high of $3.4 million to a low of $3.2 million.

Not included in the $40.3 million was $2.7 million redistributed to the institutions by the CFA for participation in the 1994 television package, $4.4 million retained by the institutions participating in bowls and $480,000 divided among all 12 institutions by the NCAA for academic enhancement.

Other yearly money distributions, since 1980, are as follows: 1980 ($4.1 million); 1981 ($5.57 million); 1982 ($7.54 million); 1983 ($9.53 million); 1984 ($18.4 million); 1985 ($9.34 million); 1986 ($13.1 million); 1987 ($13.56 million); 1988 ($14.34 million); 1989 ($13.85 million); 1990 ($16.3 million); 1991 ($20.6 million); 1992 ($27.7 million); 1993 ($34.34 million) and 1994 ($34.36 million).

The SEC's financial support of its institutions ensures the continued quality of academic and athletic opportunities for student-athletes. The Conference has developed the following programs to better serve its membership:

SERVICE

•The SEC and United Way teamed up on a promotional project during the 1994-95 academic year to recognize outstanding contributions in community service made by student-athletes, coaches and staff. Utilizing funding from United Way state agencies throughout the SEC region, 13 video public service announcements were produced to be shown during telecasts of SEC competitions. Recognizing the importance of familiarizing people with service opportunities, the SEC presidents have elected to continue this partnership with United Way.

Alabama basketball player Roy Rogers, featured here in an SEC/United Way public service announcement, volunteers his time at a local agency in Tuscaloosa.

 The 1994 football season marked the selection of the inaugural SEC Good Works team. The 12-man squad is comprised of players from each school who have shown a commitment to community service. A complete listing follows:

SEC Good Works Team

Jason Allen, QB (Arkansas) Gabe Banks, SE (Vanderbilt) Jay Barker, QB (Alabama) Alundis Brice, CB (Ole Miss) Darrin Clark, QB (Miss, State) James Flowers, DT (S. Garolina) Andy Fuller, TE (Auburn) Jack Jackson, WR (Florida) Whit Marshall, LB (Georgia) Gabe Northern, DE (LSU) Leon Smith, SE (Kentucky) James Stewart, RB (Tennessee)

• Hardee's, an SEG Corporate Partner, developed the Rise and Shine SEC Community Service Student-Athlete program. Each week an outstanding student-athlete was recognized on the Jefferson Pilot SEC Football Game of the Week for their involvement in community service. A total of $16,000 was given to United Way agencies on behalf of each student-athlete. The program culminated with the selection of the Hardee's Rise and Shine SEC Community Service Male and Female Student Athletes of the Year. Georgia linebacker Randall Godfrey earned the men's honor, while Mississippi State track standout April Ecke received the women's honor. The following is a list student-athletes from each institution recognized in this program.

The SEC hosts youth clinics each year in conjunction with several conference events, including the football championship game, the men's and women's basketball tournaments and the volleyball tournament. These clinics provide children from host cities the opportunity to receive instruction from SEC and other area coaches

EDUCATION

The 12 member institutions provide over $23 million in scholarships for the more than 3,300 student-athletes each year.

The SEC, in conjunction with the Nokia Sugar Bowl, annually awards post-graduate scholarships totaling $70,000 to 12 student-athletes.

The top male and female nominee each receive the H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar Athlete Award, named for the league's fourth commissioner and a $10,000 scholarship. Ten additional student-athletes (five male and five female) are each awarded with $5,000 to continue their education.

Louisiana State football player Michael Blanchard and Mississippi State distance runner April Ecke were named the 1994-95 McWhorter Scholar Athletes of the Year. Blanchard, who started at center for the Tigers in 1994, compiled a 4.0 grade point average in Zoology. Ecke, the first MSU women to earn cross country All-America honors, earned a 3.81 GPA in Teacher Education.

• Money is allocated for the general scholarship fund of each institution through programs developed by HealthSouth and Jefferson-Pilot. For the past three years, HealthSouth has presented $120,000 of scholarships to each university, in conjunction with the SEC Football Championship. The SEC television contract with JP Sports for football and men's basketball also guarantees at least $80,000 to be distributed to the participating schools through the JP Player of the Game program.

COMMITMENT

- The SEC distributed more than $182,000 during the 1994-95 academic year from the NCAA Special Assistance Fund for Student-Athletes. This program was implemented to provide financial aid to student-athletes with specific needs such as clothing and shoes, medical or vision care, academic course supplies and family emergencies.
- The SEC was the first conference in the nation to assemble a Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Two representatives from each of the SEC member schools are selected to serve on the committee which meets twice a year to discuss issues of concern to the student-athlete.

The Southeastern Conference is committed to promoting the accomplishments of its student-athletes and coaches involved in the SEC's 19 sports. The conference recently formed a four-year agreement with SportSouth to televise over 60 conference events and shows, 30 different coaches shows and more than 250 hours of SEC programming per year.

The multi-year agreement features the following: a 35-week program highlighting seasonal activity in all SEC sports; "Game of the Week" packages for women's and men's basketball and baseball; a women's volleyball package that includes the SEC championship game; and three additional events.

- The Conference conducts Coaches Orientation Programs twice yearly at the SEC headquarters to supplement existing institutional orientation programs and to enhance the professional development of coaches. The one-day seminars, which began in the summer of 1993, were developed with input from conference compliance coordinators, faculty athletics representatives, athletic directors and the student-athlete advisory committee. Topics of discussion range from the role of the SEC and NCAA to the role of athletics in higher education.
- The annual SEC Summer Workshop is designed to review administrative procedures of the conference. Topics addressed include financial aid, criteria for satisfactory progress, squad lists and eligibility rules. Participants include: faculty athletic representatives, senior women's administrators, directors of financial aid, admissions directors, registrars and compliance coordinators.

SEC Awards

McWhorter Scholar-Athletes of the Year

Each year the SEC, in conjunction with the Nokia Sugar Bowl, provides the league's male and female H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Award winners with a $10,000 post-graduate scholarship. In addition, five other male and female student-athletes each receive $5,000 post-graduate scholarships.

The award recipients are chosen by a committee of Faculty Athletics Representatives from the 12 SEC institutions.

The award is named for former SEC Commissioner H. Boyd McWhorter.

SEC Divisions

The 5-2-1 schedule format, implemented in 1992, allows each school to play all five division opponents along with two permanent and one rotating non-division opponent each year. Schools will play each rotating non-division opponent two years (home and away) before the next opponent appears on its schedule. This ensures every SEC member plays at least twice during an eight-year period.

Division alignment and schedule format follows:

Arkansas All-Star Candidates

VERL MITCHELL Senior • Offensive Guard 6-4 • 292 • Paragould, Ark.

- Established himself as one of the standouts along the Razorback offensive line, starting all 11 games as a junior in 1994 at offensive tackle.
- Has currently started 22-consecutive games dating back to the 1993 season when he first earned the position.
- His strength, consistency, and versatility give the Arkansas coaching staff the ability to play him on either side of the ball.

MARK SMITH Junior • Linebacker 6-3 • 244 • Webb City, Mo.

- Paced the Arkansas squad with 79 total tackles, including 35 solo hits, as a sophomore in 1994
- Started all 11 games last season, emerging as the team's most consistent player.
- Played outside linebacker in three linebacker scheme throughout the 1994 campaign, but will man one of two inside linebacker spots in the new 1995 alignment.

EARL SCOTT Senior • Center 6-2 • 272 • N. Little Rock, Ark.

- Emerged as Arkansas' steadiest offensive lineman last season as a junior, starting every game and grading well on a consistent basis.
- In addition, he played every snap of the season except briefly in the fourth quarter versus Vanderbilt.
- The starter at center much of the last three seasons, serving as the anchor of the offensive line.

JUNIOR SOLI Senior • Nose Guard 6-2 • 290 • Columbus, Ga.

- Quick, tough, physical player who excels against the running game.
- Didn't miss a day of spring practice, despite undergoing offseason arthroscopic knee surgery.
- Registered 10 tackles behind the line of scrimmage last season and posted his first career touchdown on an interception return versus Auburn in Jordan-Hare Stadium.

Florida All-Star Candidates

MARK CAMPBELL Senior • Defensive End 6-3 • 289 • Miami, Fla.

 Has started the past two seasons at defensive end, but can also play tackle if necessary.

 Ranked third on the 1994 unit in tackles for loss with 12, third in quarterback sacks with six and third in defensive "Big Plays" with 27 (12 TFLs, 12 QB hurries, two forced fumbles and a pass deflection).

 Returns as Florida's most experienced defensive lineman.

JASON ODOM Senior • Offensive Tackle 6-5 • 291 • Bartow, Fla.

• Expected to be a top candidate for the Outland and Lombardi Trophy Awards in 1995.

• Selected as the recipient of the 1994 Jacobs Blocking Trophy by the SEC coaches, presented annually to the league's top blocker.

 A consensus first-team All-SEC choice in 1994 who also garnered second team All-America honors.

• A starter at offensive tackle since early in his freshman year in 1992, with 34 career starts.

 Played right tackle for two seasons before moving to the left spot in 1994.

BEN HANKS Senior • Nickelbacker 6-2 • 221 • Miami, Fla.

 Selected to the first-team Coaches All-SEC team as a junior and secondteam Associated Press listing.

 Paced the Florida defensive unit with 93 total tackles and ranked third on the 1993 squad with 83 stops.

 Named the Gators' Most Outstanding Linebacker in 1994.

 Has posted 34 starts over the past 34 games at nickelbacker, with additional experience at inside linebacker coming last season.

DANNY WUERFFEL Junior • Quarterback 6-2 • 208 • Fort Walton, Fla.

 Posted an outstanding sophomore campaign in 1994, recording the nation's fourth-best efficiency rating of 151.2 and throwing for 1,724 yards and 18 touchdowns.

 His 40 career touchdown passes ranks fourth on the school all-time record book and eigth in SEC history.

• Threw for a Sugar Bowl record 394 yards in 1995.

 SEC Freshman of the Year and Freshman All-America in 1993.

 His 22 touchdown passes in 1993 set a Division I-A national record for a freshman.

Georgia All-Star Candidates

PHILLIP DANIELS Senior • Defensive Tackle 6-6 • 260 • Donalsonville, Ga.

- Moved to outside linebacker last season after playing one season at defensive tackle. Started all 11 games at that spot, finishing the year as Georgia's fifth-leading tackler.
- Registered a team-best five sacks and runner-up seven tackles for loss in 1994.
- His 13 tackles and two sacks versus Kentucky marked his best performance of the year.
- Has played in 32 games throughout his career, posting 19 starts and recording 160 total tackles.

RANDALL GODFREY Senior • Linebacker 6-3 • 237 • Valdosta, Ga.

- Has started 30 of 33 career games, including 10 in 1994, despite battling an ankle injury during the latter part of the season.
- Earned second-team All-SEC honors from the Associated Press last year.
- Currently boasts 330 total tackles, good for eighth on Georgia's all-time chart.
- His 206 career unassisted tackles ranks fourth on the Bulldog list, only 40 shy of the school record held by Ben Zambiasi.
- Earned first-team Coaches All-SEC in 1993 after leading Georgia in tackles for second-straight season (114 total stops).
- Freshman All-America and SEC Defensive Freshman of the Year in 1992 after posting a team-best 114 total tackles.

Tennessee All-Star Candidates

TYRONE HINES Junior • Linebacker 6-2 • 226 Brownsville, Tenn.

- Became one of the key factors behind the Vols' defensive resurgence following his mid-season insertion at middle linebacker where he started seven of the last eight games.
- Accumulated 67 total regular-season hits, fourth on the squad, while causing one fumble and returning another for a touchdown against Arkansas.
- Registered 13 tackles and a key interception in the Vols' bowl victory.
- Broke up a pair of passes, intercepted a pass and accumulated three tackles for loss during the 1994 campaign.

BUBBA MILLER Senior • Center 6-1 • 285 Franklin, Tenn.

- Named second-team All-SEC by the Associated Press after extending games-started streak to 36-straight contests.
- Shifted to offensive guard to start the last six games of the season following a hand injury that forced his move from center.
- Tennessee's offense piled up 414.6 yards of total offense per game behind his capable blocking, ranking third in the SEC and 19th nationally.
- Helped the Vols' secure their second-straight SEC team rushing title, averaging 231.2 yards per game and 4.7 yards per rushing attempt.

PEYTON MANNING Sophomore • Quarterback 6-5 • 202 New Orleans, La.

- Named the SEC's Freshman of the Year after finishing the regular season with a completion percentage of 61.8.
- As a freshman, provided leadership befitting that of a seasoned SEC veteran, posting a 7-1 mark as a starter.
- Finished 1994 as the SEC's fourthrated passer (145.2), throwing for 1149 yards and 11 touchdowns against only six interceptions.
- Set the Tennessee record for most yards passing (1149) and yards of total offense (1115) for a freshman quarterback in 1994.

Atlanta was the site of the 1994 SEC Football Championship, as a Georgia Dome record 74,751 watched Eastern Division champion Florida capture its second straight conference crown with a 24-23 victory over Western Division winner Alabama.

The Gators effectively moved the ball through the air, as Danny Wuerffel connected on 23 of 41 passes for 227 yards and a pair of touchdowns. But at the conclusion of the hard-fought contest, it was Florida defensive standout Ellis Johnson who distinguished himself as the game's most valuable player. The rugged senior recorded five tackles, one pass breakup and an SEC Championship record three tackles behind the line of scrimmage, including two quarterback sacks.

Trailing 17-10 at the half, Alabama regained the lead, 23-17, with two third-quarter field goals and an interception return for a touchdown with less than nine minutes to play. Florida responded with an 80-yard, 10-play drive which ended with a two-yard touchdown pass from Wuerffel to Chris Doering with just 5:29 remaining in the fourth quarter. The extra point by Judd Davis secured the winning margin, as the Gator defense forced an interception on the final Alabama drive.

The SEC's third title game attracted a televison audience of more than 30 million viewers. ABC's broadcast earned a 10.5 rating, marking the network's most-watched college football game since the 1991 season.

Florida defensive tackle Ellis Johnson earned Most Valuable Player honors after setting a new SEC Championship Game record with three tackles behind the line of scrimmage.

A crowd of 74,751 watched the third annual SEC Championship Game, bettering the previous Georgia Dome attendance record of 72,500 set at the 1994 Super Bowl.

SEC Presence in the NFL

Florida's Emmit Smith, a first-round draft pick in 1990, earned MVP honors of the 1994 Super Bowl for the Dallas Cowboys.

As the National Football League kicked off the 1994 season, 166 players with Southeastern Conference ties had secured spots on an active roster of one of the 28 NFL squads. The SEC led all Division I conferences in active NFL participation, while the Pacific 10 was second with 165 players activated for the NFL's season-opening week.

The SEC boasted a total of 188 former standouts on opening day rosters, a listing of each NFL team's 53-man roster which includes inactive players. The Philadelphia Eagles enlisted the talents of a conference-high 13 players, while Green Bay, New Orleans and Tampa Bay each had 11 SEC players.

National Champions

Southeastern Conference teams have won 12 national championships (AP, UPI, Football Writers Association). Alabama headlines the league with seven titles - 1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978, 1979 and 1992. Tennessee was the first conference squad to capture the national crown in 1951. Auburn ruled supreme in 1957, while LSU followed in 1958. Ole Miss stood atop the land in 1960 and Georgia earned the distinction in 1980. Arkansas, which joined the SEC in 1991, captured the 1964 national title (FWAA).

Tennessee Volunteers (10-1) — 1951 (AP, UPI)

*Appointed Conference Games

While the SEC rule requiring six football games with member schools was in effect, 16 games with outside schools were appointed to serve as conference games to avoid a violation for the members. The won-lost records of these games are included in the annual conference standings, but the results are not included in the conference point totals.

Bobby Wilson, a standout performer at Ole Miss from 1946-49, owns a share of the SEC career interceptions record with 20. He returned those thefts for a league-record 379 yards.

Georgia's Eric Zeier, the SEC's career passing leader, along with Florida's Shane Matthews are the only players in conference history to throw for 3,000 yards in consecutive seasons.

Vanderbilt's Kurt Page was the first quarterback in SEC history to pass for more than 3,000 yards in a season. He twice led the league in total offense.

1942 — FRANK SINKWICH Georgia Halfback

Frank Sinkwich became the first player from the Southeastern area to win the coveted Heisman Trophy, winning the award in 1942, the year he led Georgia to an 11-1 record and a 9-0 victory over UCLA in the Rose Bowl. Sinkwich led the nation in rushing in 1941 and total offense in 1942. His individual performance in the 1942 Orange Bowl (a 40-26 victory over TCU) is still regarded as the best one-man showing in that New Year's Day Classic. Against the Horned Frogs, Sinkwich completed nine of 13 passes for 243 yards and three touchdowns, rushed for 139 yards including a 43-yard TD run, for 382 yards of total offense. Nicknamed "Flatfoot Frankie," Sinkwich received his Heisman Trophy while in his Marine uniform. A long-time businessman in Athens, Sinkwich died Oct. 22, 1990.

1959 — BILLY CANNON LSU Halfback

A rare combination of strength and speed, LSU's Billy Cannon became the SEC's second Heisman winner in 1959. In the Tigers' heart-stopping 7-3 win over Ole Miss in 1959, Cannon, who ran the 100-yard dash in 9.4 and threw the shot put 54-4 for the LSU track team, entered his name in college football folklore with an 89-yard punt return in the fourth quarter for the winning points. However, it was a dramatic goal line stand in the final seconds with Cannon making the game-saving tackle that preserved the LSU win. Although renowned for his offensive skills, Cannon's contemporaries claim he was a better defender. He also averaged 40.3 yards per punt as a college star. Cannon had a successful 11-year pro career with the Houston Oilers, Oakland Raiders and Kansas City Chiefs. Today, Cannon is a dentist in Baton Rouge.

1966 — STEVE SPURRIER Florida Quarterback

Another skilled all-around player, Florida's Steve Spurrier earned his Heisman Trophy in 1966, edging Purdue's Bob Griese for the coveted award. In his Gator career, Spurrier completed 392 of 692 for 4,848 yards and 37 touchdowns, while rushing for 442 yards. He led his 1966 Gator team to a 9-2 record, including a 27-12 victory over Georgia Tech in the 1967 Orange Bowl, However, it was the 1966 Sugar Bowl that enhanced Spurrier's image nationwide, when he led a fourth-quarter rally against Missouri which fell two points shy. Trailing 20-0 entering the final period, Spurrier led the Gators to three touchdowns; unfortunately for Florida all three attempts at two point plays were unsuccessful. As a professional, Spurrier played for the San Francisco 49ers, Minnesota Vikings and Tampa Bay Bucs. He now serves as the head coach at his alma mater.

1971 — PAT SULLIVAN Auburn Quarterback

In his brilliant three-year career at Auburn, Pat Sullivan guided an offensive team that averaged 34.4 points and 425.8 yards per game. While a junior, he led the nation in total offense with 285.6 yards per game before going on to win the Heisman his senior year. Sullivan became the first Heisman recipient ever to play at a school where John Heisman (for whom the trophy is named) coached. In his three-year career, Sullivan accounted for 71 touchdowns (18 running and 53 passing) for a then-national record. Winner of the MVP Award in the 1971 Gator Bowl, Sullivan went on to play professionally for the Atlanta Falcons, Washington Redskins and San Francisco 49ers. After serving as president of his own tire company in Birmingham, Ala., and color analyst on the Auburn Radio Network, he returned to Auburn in 1986 to serve as an assistant coach to Pat Dye. He enters his fourth season as head coach at TCU in 1995.

1982 — HERSCHEL WALKER Georgia Tailback

Georgia's Herschel Walker, third in the Heisman voting in 1980 and second in 1981, continued his progression toward the trophy in 1982, winning easily over Stanford's John Elway. Leading the Bulldogs to a three-year record of 35-3, including a perfect 12-0 National Championship season in 1980, Walker finished third on the all-time rushing list in the NCAA with a three-year total of 5,259 yards, finishing behind Pittsburgh's Tony Dorsett (6,082) and Southern Cal's Charles White (5,598), both of whom needed four years to reach their figures. During his Georgia career, Walker set 10 NCAA records, 15 SEC records, and 30 Georgia records. He also starred at track, running a 10.1 100-meter dash and a 6.18 60-yard dash. Walker is now playing professional football with the Philadelphia Eagles after playing with the Dallas Cowboys, Minnesota Vikings and the New Jersey Generals in the USFL.

1985 — BO JACKSON Auburn Tailback

A gifted athlete, Auburn's Vincent "Bo" Jackson became the sixth SEC player to claim the Heisman Trophy, winning the award over lowa's Chuck Long in the closest balloting ever. Rarely have the nation's sports fans witnessed such a talented player. He became the Southeastern Conference's first three-sport letterman in two decades, claiming monograms in football, baseball and track.

As a football player, Jackson gained 4,303 yards in his career, averaging 6.6 yards per carry, an SEC record. During his Auburn career, Jackson was MVP in four different bowl games, winning honors for his play in the Tangerine, Sugar, Liberty and Cotton Bowl.

During his Heisman-winning season, Jackson led the SEC in rushing (162.4 yards per game), scoring (102 points), and all-purpose running (169.0 yards per game).

Continuing his multi-sport pursuits as a professional, Jackson plays baseball for the California Angels. He earned MVP honors at the 1990 Major League All-Star Game while playing for the Kansas City Royals. A hip injury ended his football career in 1991 after playing with the Los Angeles Raiders.

CFA Academic Achievement Award Winners

The College Football Association Academic Achievement Award is presented annually by the Touchdown Club of Memphis, Tenn., to the school with the highest graduation rate among members of its football team.

Kentucky captured the SEC's first award in 1989 by graduating 90 percent of its incoming class of 1983. UK reported that 18 of 20 football players who began classes in 1983 completed degree requirements.

Seven league member institutions have earned honorable mention distinction since 1987, including Florida, Kentucky, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. In 1995 Mississippi State, South Carolina, and Vanderbilt received honorable mention status for registering graduation reports of 70 percent or higher.

According to CFA survey results, the overall graduation rate of its member schools has shown a significant increase in the last several years. In 1986 the CFA membership graduated 41.6 percent of its football players, compared to a rate of 58.6 percent in 1995.

BOWL ALLIANCE INFORMATION

The Orange, Sugar and Fiesta bowls were selected for the Bowl Alliance games to decide a national champion, beginning after the 1995 season. Those bowls will alternate each year as the site of a matchup between the top two teams available. Champions from the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Twelve (formerly Big Eight) and Southeastern conferences will be involved, along with two at-large teams beginning in 1996.

SEC Bowl Notes

- At least half of the SEC's membership participated in a bowl game in 11 of the last 14 seasons. Overall, the SEC has posted a nation-high 249 bowl invitations, 84 more than the second place Southwest Conference. Only four times since 1980 has a conference produced more bowl teams in a given year that the SEC.
- Alabama and Georgia, as well as former SEC member Georgia Tech, are three of only four schools to win all four major bowl games (Rose, Sugar, Orange and Cotton). Notre Dame is the only other school to complete the grand slam. Alabama, which holds the national record for most bowl appearances (47), most victories (27) and consecutive appearances (27) is the only school to win each of the majors at least twice.
- The SEC has had seven bowl teams in a season on three occasions. Most recently, the conference was represented by seven teams following both the 1982 and 1983 seasons, in addition to the 1974 campaign.

1983	1982	1974
Alabama-Sun	Alabama-Liberty	Alabama-Orange
Auburn-Sugar	Auburn-Tangerine	Auburn-Gator
Florida-Gator	Florida-Bluebonnet	Florida-Sugar
Georgia-Cotton	Georgia-Sugar	Georgia-Tangerine
Kentucky-Hall of Fame	LSU-Orange	Miss. State-Sun
Ole Miss-Independence	Tennessee-Peach	Tennessee-Liberty
Tennessee-Citrus	Vanderbilt-Hall of Fame	Vanderbilt-Peach

 On eight different occasions, current members of the SEC have competed against one another in bowl games. Ole Miss leads the pack with five bowls against conference foes and Auburn is next with three. Florida, LSU and Tennessee have each squared off against SEC teams twice, while Alabama and Vanderbilt have once. A complete list of SEC vs. SEC bowl games follows:

 1955 Gator Bowl- Vanderbilt 25, Aubum 13
 1965 Liberty Bowl - Ole Miss 13, Aubum 7

 1958 Gator Bowl- Ole Miss 7, Florida 3
 1969 Gator Bowl- Florida 14, Tennessee 13

 1960 Sugar Bowl- Ole Miss 21, ISU 0
 1971 Gator Bowl- Aubum 35, Ole Miss 28

 1964 Sugar Bowl- Alabama 12, Ole Miss 7
 1972 Bluebonnet Bowl - Tennessee 24, LSU 17

- During the decade of the 1980s the SEC was the only conference to have every member participate in a bowl game. In addition, nine of the league's 10 schools played in at least two postseason events. Overall the SEC led all conferences during the decade with 56 bowl appearances. The Big Ten was second with 45 as the Southwest and Pac Ten tied for third with 35. The Big Eight (31), Atlantic Coast (25) and Western Athletic (21) rounded out the list.
- During the decade of the 1980s the SEC also posted more bowl victories than any other conference. Member institutions won 29 bowl games, while the Pac Ten and Big Ten followed with 22 and 21 respectively. Other victory totals during the decade were as follows: Atlantic Coast (15), Big Eight (13), Southwest (13) and Western Athletic (nine).

SEC BOWL REVENUE DISTRIBUTION

- (A) For bowl games providing receipts which result in a balance of less than $2,00,000 (two million),the participating institution shall retain the first $600,000 plus 20% of the balance. The remainder shall be remitted to the Commissioner and will be divided into 12 equal shares with one share to the Conference and one share to each of the other 11 institutions.
- the Conference and one share to each of the other 11 institutions.

  (B) For bowl games providing receipts which result in a balance between $2,000,000 and $4,999,999, the participating institution shall retain the first $800,000 plus 20% of the balance. The remainder shall be remitted to the Commissioner and will be divided into 12 equal shares, with one share to the Conference and one share to each of the other 11 institutions.
- the Conference and one share to each of the other 11 institutions.

  (C) For bowl games providing receipts which result in a balance of more than $5,000,000, the participating institution shall retain the first $1,200,000 ($1,300,000 if $EC team is a participant in the Alliance Bowl which determines the national championship) plus 12% of the balance. The remainder shall be remitted to the Commissioner and will be divided into 12 equal shares, with one share to the Conference and one share to each of the other 11 institutions.
- (D) Institutions which participate in an Alliance Bowl shall receive an additional $100 per mile, one way.

(Participating institution does not share in the distribution shares.)

NOTE: Poll was compiled by Charles Woodroof, former SEC Assistant Director of Media Relations. The AP (Writers and Broadcasters) Poll began in 1936. From 1936 to 1961 the wire service ranked 20 teams. From 1962 to 1967 only 10 teams were recognized. From 1968 to 1988 AP again resumed its Top 20 before expanding to 25 teams in 1989. Points were awarded based on a team's finish in the final AP poll each year. Points were awarded on a 20-19-18-17-16-15-14-13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis from 1936 to 1988, and a 25-24-23-22-21-20-19-18-17-16-15-14-13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis for 1989 to 1993.

SEC Licensing Program

The Southeastern Conference markets its registered marks (Southeastern Conference, SEC, SEC Seal and SEC logos) through a licensing program with Collegiate Concepts, Inc. The SEC began its licensing program in 1988 to protect the use of its name and insignias and to ensure that its member institutions benefit from the use and sale of items bearing its name and/or logos.

The program also ensures that manufacturers and retailers market only the highest-quality merchandise using the conference name and logos. The SEC has joined a consortium of universities throughout the country to bring about consistency in the marketplace for officially-licensed collegiate products.

In addition to the SEC, Collegiate Licensing of Atlanta administers the programs for more than 100 universities and 10 bowls, including the Nokia Sugar Bowl. The objectives of the consortium are to assure that the names and logos of the members are protected and that the members receive their fair share of revenues generated and that, alumni, students and supporters can easily recognize authorized merchandise.

Consumers can tell if the merchandise is authorized by looking for the label which says, "Officially Licensed Collegiate Products,"

Corporate Marketing Program

Several of the nation's most prestigious corporations have joined with the Southeastern Conference in supporting intercollegiate athletics.

Begun in 1988, the SEC Corporate Marketing Program allows these corporations to join with the conference as partners in furthering the role of athletics in higher education.

Each member of the SEC corporate marketing team shows its commitment to the future of intercollegiate athletics with contributions to SEC Drug Education programs, SEC Youth Clinics, SEC Scholarship Programs and SEC Academic Enhancement Programs.

The corporations also conduct consumer promotions designed to increase public awareness of the member institutions of the SEC, which in turn supports increased ticket sales and high television and radio ratings.

In addition to the broad spectrum of benefits provided by these contributions, each SEC institution is a direct beneficiary of the program.

Current Corporate Marketing partners with the SEC include Buffalo Rock (Dr. Pepper), First Alabama Bank, Gatorade, General Mills, Golden Flake Snack Foods, Hardee's HealthSouth, Texaco and Toyota.
